HEAVY DRUM AND ARTILLERY FIRE BY THE GERMANS INDICATES THE FORMATION OF ANOTHER BIG EFFORT

MOST INTENSIVE FIRE SEEMS IN PROGRESS SOUTH OF THE SOMME WHERE THE DIRECT DRIVE TO AMIENS IS NOW ON. OTHER HEAVY ARTILLERY IS DIRECTED AGAINST THE BRITISH FLANK.

RENEWAL OF GERMAN THRUST TOWARD ARRAS COMMANDERS BELIEVE, IS TO FOLLOW

EVERY DAY FINDS ALLIES IN BETTER POSITION TO RESIST ALL GERMAN EFFORT. BRITISH LINES HOLD UNWAVERINGLY AND FRENCH HAVE NOT BEEN "BUDGED" BY BIG PUSH.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Germany apparently is preparing for another big effort on the wide battlefield in northern France. Heavy drum fire such as usually precedes an attack is reported along extensive sectors held by the British, while the Paris war office announces violent artillery action along the French front.

The most intensive German fire seems in progress south of the Somme where the direct drive toward Amiens is on and north of the Scarpe river, toward the British left flank. In the Somme sector the British have evidently been trying to better their positions in anticipation of the next German push and Field Marshal Haig reports a slight advance of his line on the south bank of the Somme.

The increase in the artillery fire north of the Scarpe river may mean a renewal of the German thrust toward Arras which broke down earlier in the battle. They have shown intense anxiety to push forward in the northern part of the area, but have found the British line virtually immovable.

A still further extension of the battle northward may be indicated as well in the beginning of a heavy attack with gas shells upon the British lines on the six mile front between Lens and LaBasse canal and east of Armentieres, a dozen miles north of LaBasse.

The Germans are likewise pounding the French lines south of the Oise the extreme allied right of the present active fighting front. The French have retired from their dangerous salient here, however, and are reported well established in positions which had been prepared along the Aylette river which offers an excellent holding point.

BETTER POSITIONS THAN EVER

Washington, April 8.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—Every day finds the allies in a better position to resist with definite success the great German offensive, according to an official review today by the British military attaché here. French, British and American reserves are pouring in daily to help check the German drive.

AMERICANS DRIVE GERMANS OUT

With the American Army in France, April 7.—(Associated Press Cable)—On the front northwest of Toul Friday night, the Germans attempted two raids but both were repulsed.

American infantrymen went out of their trenches on the second occasion and chased the Germans from the German front line trenches into the support trenches.

BRITISH MAKE SLIGHT GAINS

London, April 8.—(Associated Press Cable)—On the southern bank of the Somme the British last night made a small advance, it is announced officially.

VIOLENT ARTILLERY FIRE

Paris, April 8.—(Associated Press Cable)—Violent artillery engagements occurred last night, especially on the left bank of the Oise river, says today's official report.

GERMANS USE 25 DIVISIONS

With the French Army in France, April 7.—(Associated Press Cable)—Twenty-five divisions have been used by the Germans in the last four days in efforts to break through the French lines and to reach the railroad running south from Amiens.

All attacks have been checked by the wonderful resistance of the French, some of whom were thrown into the line as soon as they arrived on the battle field.

CHILEAN SUBMARINES, AMERICAN BUILT, LEAVE FOR HOME

CHILEAN SUBMARINES.

Six Chilean submarine, accompanied by the mother ship "Agamos," leaving New London, Conn. for Chile. The submarines were originally built for Great Britain, who turned them over to Chile in partial payment for two Chilean dreadnoughts that were building in England.

The cheerfulness and confidence with which the French go into action is remarkable. They feel they are better than the enemy and make light of the German superiority in numbers. The French command continues to work on the principle of using the smallest possible number of troops to stay the German rush, thus retaining the reserve for possible attacks elsewhere. Since March 30 the French have not budged, in fact have gained some ground.

GERMANS LOSE 300,000

With the American Army in France, April 8.—(Associated Press Cable)—An American officer who has just returned from the battlefield of northern France where he has been since the beginning of the German offensive estimates thus far the Germans have lost at least 300,000 in killed, wounded and missing. This officer formerly was in the British army and is familiar with all the conditions.

FAR EASTERN AFFAIR NOW DISTURBING WASHINGTON

ty parties and afford protection. Officials here feel they cannot refuse approval of the action of the Japanese and British.

AMERICAN SOLDIER READY FOR ANYTHING

READY FOR THE HUNS. Committee on Public Relations.

This United States marine, stationed in the Lorraine trenches, believes in preparedness. He is ready for anything that may come his way.

A goat, which the auctioneers immediately dubbed the "Kaiser's Goat" found ready sale time after time until it had brought a total of $580. Everyone was eager to get the Kaiser's goat, and everyone equally eager to give the other fellow a chance at final ownership. S. E. Shultz eventually found himself in possession of the animal, and a neighbor had solemnly pledged to pasture Billie for Mr. Shultz.

An old hen—just an ordinary, faithful old fowl, brought $80 and the auctioneer, being in doubt as to just who owned the hen, pitched her into the crowd with the declaration "there's your hen."

Cakes were in great demand at $6 to $29 per cake, while $1 was nothing for one of the numerous pies consigned to the big sale. Eggs sold as high as $2.50 each, while other articles of small value brought prodigious prices under the magic banner of the Red Cross.

Apparently there was a buyer for everything offered, and that buyer was willing to "pay the price," realizing that it was in a most worthy cause, and desiring to contribute his or her bit toward raising the largest possible fund for the great work of the American Red Cross thereby placing Jefferson township on the honor roll.

The women of the town and township joined forces in serving lunch for the big crowd, and this added much to the social side of the big event while the women netted the snug sum of $239, which went into the general fund. It is unnecessary to add that the lunch served was up to the usual high standard maintained in the Jefferson township and Jeffersonville women.

Realizing that it would be impossible to sell at auction everything contributed to the sale, it was necessary to hold some corn, potatoes, eggs and oats, which later were disposed of at market price.

Persons from many surrounding town attended the sale, and several persons interested in conducting Red Cross auctions at other points watched with interest and made inquiry into the detail of the sale.

The six auctioneers, who worked tirelessly and got the most for every article offered, were Colonels Scott, Titus, Minshall, Eckle, Ferguson and Allen.

The main committee back of the successful auction was composed of G. W. Blessing, chairman; W. W. Williams, secretary and manager of publicity; J. A. Watkins, A. C. Shepherd and Guy L. Carr, and if there ever was a committee which did its work thoroughly and worked untiringly until success was achieved, it was the main committee, who have been given unstinted praise for their efforts.

Much credit also is reflected upon the soliciting committees who made a house to house canvass and did their work so faithfully that there was no room for censure.

Because of his youthfulness, and the energy which he placed into the work, Jesse Heglar, son of Mr. Roy Heglar proved himself the star so neither end worker by obtaining a tremendous amount of produce for the auction, and then collecting much of it.

And upon the people of Jeffersonville and Jefferson township in general is reflected much credit for their liberal contributions to a cause which does so much to take the bitter sting out of the frightfulness of the battlefield.

Jeffersonville and Jefferson township will be credited with the amount of the auction when the campaign for the Fayette County War Chest is launched next May.

The committees assisting the general committee was composed of the following persons:

Township Committee

Ed. L. Brown, Geo. Crumrine, Frank Snodgrass, Omar Seiberts, W. N. Lemlin, A. S. Booco, H. F. Beatty, Joe Brock, Sr., Roy Dill, Willard Kirk, Jesse Heglar, Louis Perrill, C. N. Ritener, W. B. Warner, F. W. Mabra.

BAD RUNAWAY ON FAYETTE STREET

A bad runaway occurred on Fayette street, Monday morning about 8:30 when a spirited team of grey horses attached to one of the Pyley transfer wagons, became frightened while standing in front of the Odd Fellows building on North Fayette street, dashed down Fayette street, crossing Court at mad gallop, and finally coming to an abrupt stop in front of the Cline & Cline garage after one of the animals had tripped on a strap and falling on the street.

The fallen horse was dragged fully 75 feet, sustaining some ugly cuts where the friction on the surface of the street ate into its right front leg and side. The horses struck two automobiles at the street side and slightly damaged each.

The injured horse was taken to a veterinarian for attention.

HOW THE SOLDIER ENTERTAINS HIMSELF

To make the soldier boy as near self-entertaining as possible while in camp is the purpose of a new plan just announced by Army Y. M. C. A. headquarters in the central military department. With the aid of hundreds of enlisted men who formerly were actors, vaudevillians, musicians, ventriloquists and magicians the Y. M. C. A. Entertainment Director will form a camp troupe that will be ready at all times to supply entertainment of every variety in barracks and Red Triangle huts or in the large auditoriums that now provide an amusement center for each of the six big cantonments in the central military department.

Clean entertainment of an informal nature is one of the principal recreations of the military centers, according to secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. who are perfecting the details of the new move. It is so important, in fact, that they are putting forth every effort to make the soldier boys self-entertaining, so that when they are ready to go "over there" they will know how to amuse themselves and thus avoid the pangs of loneliness and homesickness.

At Camp Sherman, Y. M. C. A. Director of Entertainment, R. H. Kirkendall has enlisted 300 former professional entertainers for work in the camp.

FINE SEED CORN NOW ON DISPLAY

Mr. Chas. Allen, while in Springfield Sunday obtained out of the car of seed corn which has been shipped to Springfield by the federal authorities for use by Clark county farmers, four sample ears of corn. He has placed the ears of corn in the window of the Craig Bros. store where all interested may look it over. The matter is of great interest in Fayette county because the car of seed corn which the government is sending for Fayette county farmers and which is now on the way, has been obtained from the same locality in Pennsylvania.

Placing the four ears from the Springfield car on display here gives our farmers an excellent opportunity to "size up" the product in advance of its arrival here.

Liberty Day

The fires of liberty have been lighted in Fayette county, freedom's torch has been lifted aloft, and planted on the heights, the final great wave of aggressive and militant patriotism has swept over the county, reaching every nook and corner, enveloping every home and inspiring every loyal citizen to redoubled efforts in behalf of his native land—the cause he loves and the ideals he holds so dear.

The enthusiasm, the eager and tense desire of everyone to be up and at something worth while, the grim determination to make every other human endeavor second to war work was clearly discernible in the expression of everyone when last Saturday, Liberty Day, dawned. That determination became more and more evident with each passing hour as liberty day reached its glorious climax.

There is to be no more procrastination—no golden hours wasted in hesitating and debating, no more vain hoping in the face of stubborn facts. The war spirit has descended on this free people—the war spirit which has its source in the true realization of stern conditions and the determination to administer a crushing defeat, to the forces of might and cruelty, now that all other means have failed.

This awakening has not come all at once. It is not the creature of anger, or the offspring of hate. It has been slow to develop, perhaps slower in its process of evolution than the more impulsive desire.

It was fitting, however, that the great storm of righteous wrath, the power of a free and peace-loving people, should stand revealed in all its tremendous majesty on Liberty Day.

Last Saturday marked many important changes in America and the most important of all was the unmistakable evidence that at last this great nation in its entirety was moving solidly into the conflict.

Our Navy's Work

Secretary of the Navy Daniels, in his Cleveland, Ohio speech Saturday evening, imparted some information for which the people have long hungered but which, doubtless for the most sufficient reasons, the department, over which he presides, has regarded as a military secret and refused to make public.

We are told by Secretary Daniels that America now has, in the war zone sections of the ocean, one hundred and fifty war vessels and thirty-five thousand men.

That imposing number of fighting ships does not take into account either the scores of smaller patrol boats and submarine chasers of the motor boat type.

All of which is proof that the navy has not been idle in its preparation for active participation in the war and is already, and has been for some time, rendering to the allied forces on the sea a tremendous assistance. Indeed with what we all knew of our navy prior to the entrance of the United States into the war, coupled with the facts announced by Secretary Daniels Saturday at Cleveland, we may very justly conclude that our splendid navy is doing more than rendering assistance to the allies and that it is one of the greatest actual fighting units now on the sea.

The Kaiser's Challenged Accepted

President Wilson, in his Liberty Day speech at Baltimore, makes it clear to all the world that he, as their chief executive servant, and the American people, accept the challenge which the Kaiser made in his speech, marking the inauguration of the present German offensive movement, that the issue of the war must be determined by force.

This nation is ready to exert every ounce of its tremendous force in the battle which humanity is waging on the battle lines in France. President Wilson and the American people have sought, in every honorable way, to avoid resort to force, but with no alternative left them by the war lords of Prussia, there is no hesitancy in accepting the inevitable.

Thus do a peace-loving executive and a peace-loving people, a great free nation enter wholeheartedly into a struggle which will require many sacrifices to be made and many sorrows to be borne.

There being no alternative, the effort exerted will be greater. The righteousness, the unselfishness of the nation will give an impetus to that effort which will not, which cannot, stop short, cannot fail, cannot falter until the world is made a fit place for humanity to live in.

If peace—permanent and enduring peace can only be attained by force, if the freedom of mankind, the security of the rights of nations, large and small, can only be made safe by resort to force, then America will furnish every ounce of force at her command.

Force it must be and force it will be—that's the answer of America to the Kaiser and his hordes of Huns—that's the answer of the world.

Poetry For Today

AMERICA'S APPEAL

For home and country's weal, take heed;
The nation waits for you;
Give quick response to Duty's call and to her trust be true.
When hardship comes, or danger lurks
Across the soldier's path,
The day may win the valor-crown,
Or, death the aftermath.
For home and country keep thyself;
Be strong, and nobly brave;
The nation's honor loudly calls;
Guard it, and freedom save!
Know, then, that honor holds in store,
As guerdon to be won,
The victor-wreath for him who lives,
Or dies for duty done.
For Duty speaks but one command,
And bids her sons be strong;
They who shall build for liberty
Shall build against the wrong.
Thus shall the nation's purpose grow
In freedom's larger plan;
Then shall a league for nation-peace
Conserve the coming man.

This is the week to buy Liberty bonds.

Here is how buying a Liberty bond helps to win the war:

1. It gives the government purchasing power, which enables the government to buy the things useful for waging war.
2. It prevents the private use of mills, railroads, etc., at a time when the government must use them for war purposes.
3. It enables the government to secure war goods sooner than they could be obtained by taxation. That is, funds can be borrowed while the tax machinery is being perfected.

$100,000,000 MUST BE SECURED DAILY

Washington, April 8.—Work by solicitors for third liberty loan bonds began in earnest today. Following weeks of careful organization of committees in every state, city and county, and the gala opening of the campaign Saturday workers started an intensive canvass for subscriptions, and by the end of the week they expect to have a big part of the $3,000,000,000 loan total.

Reports on Saturday's bond sales were so general in nature that officials at headquarters here did not attempt to calculate the actual amount subscribed. Indications were that they ran above $50,000,000, but this figure was based entirely on unofficial estimates. To make up the $3,000,000,000 credit within the four weeks, it will be necessary to gather in more than $100,000,000 a day.

By Wednesday the liberty loan organization plans to have dependable figures on subscriptions, and unusual efforts will be made to obtain accurate reports, without padding or duplication of subscriptions. The publicity men in every community have been instructed to guard against either optimism or depression not warranted by sales figures.

Secretary McAdoo, after speaking today in Philadelphia, will start on his southern tour, stopping first at Richmond, Va.

ACTUAL WORK SOON FOR SHERMAN BOYS

Chillicothe, O., April 8.—Conclusion of their theoretical training is in sight for Ohio and western Pennsylvania selects at Camp Sherman. They have been notified that at the end of the present week they will be started on actual field work, in which practical use will be made of the theories they have been taught during their first seven months in camp. Coordination of the various special branches of the service here will be an especial end in view.

Major General E. F. Glenn has decreed that divisional schools except in one or two instances shall be brought to a close by April 15. In effect the order means that the officers and men have reached a stage in their training where they are competent to put into practical effect what they have learned from the foreign and American experts who have been on duty here.

The following special classes will continue through the present week. Machine guns, automatic rifles, field fortifications, trench mortars, bayonet fighting and one-pounder guns. At the end of the week the following classes will terminate: Lewis machine gun, grenades and all others except field fortifications and signaling. No trench work has been assigned to the infantry regiments for the present week.

WAR COMMODITIES NOW PASS UNDER CONTROL OF INDUSTRIAL BOARD

Washington, April 8.—Announcement was made by the war industries board of its functions and policy under the broad powers delegated by President Wilson under which the board and its chairman, Bernard M. Baruch, virtually will control the production and distribution of every commodity essential to the prosecution of the war.

The recently appointed requirements division will be the central directing agency through which the policies of the chairman are to be carried out. Through this division the various purchasing agencies of the government and the allied purchasing commission will obtain their needs of raw materials and finished products. The task of filling orders will be delegated to special commodities divisions of the board. Where no shortage exists the requirements division will recommend that the affected department purchase in accord with established practices. Through information gathered by the new division, Chairman Baruch will determine a general industrial policy.

MARIETTA CELEBRATES

General Putnam and his Ohio company landed here 139 years ago and made a settlement which was later named Marietta, after the French queen, Marie Antoinette. Representatives of the allied nations played a prominent part in the celebration. Lieutenant Froument had been sent here to represent France. A boulder was unveiled at patriotic services, commemorating the visit of General Lafayette to Marietta.

PHEASANT EGGS ARE PLENTIFUL

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., April 8.—Ohio this year will have enough ring-necked pheasant eggs to supply all demands, according to A. C. Baxter, of the state game warden's office. The department has 400 hens of its own to supply eggs and expects to purchase additional eggs for distribution.

It is estimated that 25,000 to 30,000 eggs will be disposed of among farmers and others, beginning the middle of April. Mr. Baxter deprecates the fact that the open season, beginning November 15 for pheasants is 21 days. He says it ought to be only about five days until the state is better stocked with the birds.

SALE OF LIBERTY BONDS PLEASING TO COMMITTEEMEN

First Day of Campaign Sees Purchase of Many Thousands of Dollars Worth of Bonds—Fayette Citizens Aroused as Never Before to Necessity of Buying Bonds.

Chairman C. P. Ballard, Monday morning stated that the first day of the campaign for the sale of the Third issue of Liberty Loan Bonds brought subscriptions reaching into the thousands of dollars, and that the demand for the bonds indicated that most of the citizens of the county are aware of the necessity of buying bonds in order to help throw back the Germans and prevent the German horde from dictating to America as she is doing to some of the weaker nations about her.

The sales of bonds Saturday extended to every Bank in the county, and the thousands of dollars worth of the bonds taken on that day was in addition to the tens of thousands previously subscribed before the campaign opened.

MESSAGE FROM PERSHING

Washington, April 8—"Every dollar subscribed to the liberty loan is a dollar invested in American manhood. Every dollar subscribed as the result of self-denial means partnership in the hardships and risks of our men in the trenches. Every dollar subscribed will confirm the determination of our people at home to stand by its army to a victorious end.

"An overwhelming subscription to the third liberty loan will be a patriotic expression of confidence in our ability as a nation to maintain all that we hold dear in civilization."

This message was received by cable from General Pershing, commandin the American expeditionary forces, as an urgent appeal to the people of this country to spur on the third liberty loan campaign which will get under way in earnest tomorrow.

Every citizen who can do so is expected to invest in the third issue of bonds, and not to wait for some solicitor to approach him. This time citizens are expected to see their banker and to do this promptly so that the large quota assigned to Fayette county, and which has been guaranteed by the banks of the county, may be taken as speedily as possible. Every dollar invested in bonds is a blow at the German west front.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR K. OF P. AUCTION RED CROSS SALES

Local interest is being considerably awakened in the Red Cross auction to be held under the auspices of the Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias at the K. of P. Castle Wednesday night at 7:30.

This is the first Red Cross auction to be held in Washington and there will undoubtedly be a crowd that will pack the big castle.

Donations are coming in splendidly—all kinds of food produce, fresh eggs and "fresh from the farm" eatables that will be worth bidding for; and a variety of things necessary and practical that mean quick sale.

A registered English bull terrier, eight months old, worth $40, is one of the fancy donations, the gift of Wade Creath of Bloomingburg. There'll be lively bidding for him.

Two of the greatest auctioneers in the country, Col. M. W. Eckles and Col. Dick Scott will cry the sale.

People are asked to bring donations to the K. of P. Hall Tuesday or Wednesday. A committee will be there to receive them and to tag with the donor's name. Any who cannot send call Gregg's Shoe Store, and donations will be called for.

The dance at 9:30 promises to be a delightful social event of the week. All proceeds for Red Cross.

DEATH SUMMONS OCTOGENARIAN

Seven children, Homer Graves, of Greenfield; Mrs. Laura White, of Ross county; Mrs. Alma Wright, of Columbus; Mrs. Fannie Zeck, Highland; Barlow Graves, Dayton; Mrs. Lillie Crone and Mrs. Ida Crone, survive.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of D. W. Crone. Burial will be made in the Washington cemetery.

If You Were "Over There"

If, instead of being comfortable at home, you were "over there" in the trenches, what would you think of the man who refused to buy a LIBERTY BOND?

Wouldn't you think it was un-American for him not to do everthing in his power to help you when he knows that you are risking your life at the front to protect him and all that he possesses.

Thousands of American soldiers at the front today must wonder whether it is possible for such a person to exist as a man who does not buy LIBERTY BONDS to provide the government with the money needed to furnish the necessary supplies.

Many of these men may come back invalided this fall. How will you feel if you have to say "No" when one of them asks you if you bought LIBERTY BONDS?

Don't take any chances. Don't run any risk of being left out. Buy your LIBERTY BONDS TODAY so that whatever happens in the future you can look everyone straight in the face and say "I did my share."

SOVEREIGN DUTY OF CITIZENSHIP

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage delivered an exceptionally fine sermon on "Our Year of War" Sunday night at the First Presbyterian Church.

The minister said in part, referring to the sovereign duty of citizenship: "Ours a republic in which free speech is not shackled, or right of criticism denied the common man in the judgement of the government and its officials. About the bulletin boards or o'er the reading of our papers, we may freely speak that which in some countries would lead to our imprisonment, and in others bring about our death. But let all, at this time be guarded in the use, of this, the peculiar prerogative of democracy.

"A storm is blowing. A tempest sweeps the sea. Peril threatens the ship of state, and our only hope is in the guiding hand of those who govern and direct us. We must trust them, for without them we are lost. We must, specially at this time accord to them due measure of honor, and be obedient to their commands.

"Hard is the task which they are doing. And in their prosecution of it they have proven themselves to be but fallible men liable to mistake. And we have no other kind among us. The super-man is a German doctrine and not an American fact. In the next election comes our opportunity to express our verdict as to them and also as we see fit, by word of mouth, ere it comes. No law will stop us. No officer will interfere. But it is the sovereign duty of citizenship, to curtail criticism to the minimum, and not tend to weaken government, at a time when government should be the strongest in the control."

INJUNCTION SUIT IS FILED TODAY

In the court of common pleas Eva G. Pavey, Ralph Pavey and Carl Pavey have filed injunction proceedings in which Emma E. Moore is made defendant, asking that the defendant be restrained from erecting a line fence on what plaintiffs declare is their ground.

Plaintiffs declare the line was agreed upon in October, 1916 and that recently the defendant has indicated her intention of building a line fence along a different line. Restraining order is issued, and upon final hearing a permanent injunction is asked. F. A. Chaffin represents the plaintiffs.

DR. W. A. HARLOW COUNTY'S OLDEST PHYSICIAN, IS DEAD

In the death of Dr. W. A. Harlow, which occurred at the country home on the Staunton pike, Saturday night at eleven o'clock, Washington C. H. loses one of the distinctive figures of her community life for nearly four score years and her oldest physician.

Since before the dark days of the civil war Dr. Harlow has been actively connected with interests of town and county both as a practicing physician and as a leading druggist for half a century, and leaves a career so associated with formative years that it perpetuates itself in Fayette county annals.

When a lad of but sixteen years Dr. Harlow came from Covington, Ky. and began the reading and practice of medicine with his brother-in-law, the late Dr. H. C. Coffman an established physician of ante Bellum days, in Good Hope. During the war he made numerous trips back and forth from the camps taking care of the wounded and the dying and performed with fearlessness the duties of his profession in stamping out dread epidemics which were rife in those years following the war. Throughout the 83 years of his life he continued the practice of his profession to some extent, even when handicapped by the infirmities of old age.

For almost fifty years the Harlow drug store, originally purchased from Mr. Pitt Cleveland in 1868 and now known as the Haver drug store, was one of the business landmarks of the town.

Genial in disposition and always affable, Dr. Harlow's acquaintance covering a wide territory included friends galore in professional, business and social circles.

Dr. Harlow's death is the first break in the family circle. His wife was the daughter of the late David Persinger, wealthy pioneer Fayette county land owner, and two years ago they enjoyed together their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Of the four children, one daughter, Mrs. Maude Harlow Coffman, and three sons, Charles, Frank and Perce C. all were at home but the oldest son, Charles, who is expected from Kansas City, Mo. this evening.

Funeral services will be held at the home Tuesday morning at 10:30, Rev. Cherrington officiating. Burial will be made in the Washington cemetery.

RECOVERING FROM SEVERE INJURIES

Mr. Howard Jefferson, of Bloomingburg, is slowly recovering from severe injuries sustained recently when a farm tractor started unexpectedly and pulled a disc harrow over his legs, fracturing one leg and inflicting some severe cuts and bruises.

Mr. Jefferson was pouring water into the radiator when the tractor in some manner started forward. As he has been using crutches for some time as result of a kick by a horse, he was unable to prevent himself being knocked down. The tractor held his clothing until the disc harrow following was upon him. The tractor then traversed a circle and would have killed him had he not, by superhuman effort, dragged himself aside and by the aid of a crutch stopped the motor. He then dragged himself to his automobile and drove home. A physician was then called and dressed the fractured leg.

GERMANS HIT IN NEW SPOT SEEKING ROOM

London, April 8.—The second phase of the great battle along the "omne," which the Germans began on Thursday last, has died down. It lasted less than three days, and the fighting has resolved itself into more or less isolated engagements, in which the French and British allies have more than held their own.

The attention of the Germans for the present is mainly directed at the lower end of the battle zone, where apparently they are attempting to enlarge for the purpose of getting elbow room in which to move their vast masses of troops.

Meanwhile General Foch, the commander in chief of the allies, is biding his time, meeting the German assaults with powerful resistance, and here and there conforming his lines to the necessities of the battle. It is confidently stated at Paris that Foch will not be drawn into any false move, but will strike with his reserves at the moment chosen by him.

The British engaged in sharp local fighting at various points and repulsed German counter attacks. They also drove off by artillery fire two German attacks launched in the neighborhood of Bucquoy. West of Novon a German detachment which had gained a foothold in the French lines was forced out by a counter attack. Another attack at Grivesnes was repulsed, but the German efforts along the Oise to enlarge their previous gains were continued in the sector between Chauny and Barisis. Here the French commander deemed it advisable to withdraw to positions previously prepared, and they are being held strongly.

The official communication from German headquarters deals with the events of Saturday, when strong British infantry forces stormed the German positions around Besmont-Hamel and Albert, and French divisions "brought up from other fronts" attacked the Germans on the western bank of the Avre. These engagements, according to the German report, resulted in favor for the Teutons. On the other hand, Field Marshal Haig's report says that the German attack on the lines opposite Albert was repulsed and that British counter attacks in Aveluy wood placed the British in positions formerly held by them.

German troops still are being poured into Finland and, although the Russian authorities have made no formal protest, they have notified the German government that exception is taken to the violation by Germany of the Brest-Litovsk treaty guaranteeing the security of the Russian fleet and naval stores in Finnish waters.

Polish soldiers have been interned in Hungary, their legions having been dissolved because of "wholesale treason in the ranks."

RIGHTEOUS FORCE WILL BE RESORT

Baltimore, April 8.—President Wilson in his speech here gave America's answer to the German drive on the western battle front, to the renewed propaganda for a German-made peace, and to proposals to end the war before Germany is awakened from her dream of world dominion.

The president said: "Germany has once more said that force and force alone shall decide whether justice and peace shall reign in the affairs of men; whether right as America conceives it or dominion as she conceives it shall determine the destinies of mankind. There is therefore but one response possible from us; force, force to the utmost, force without stint or limit, the righteous force which shall make right the law of the world, and cast every selfish dominion in the dust."

The president referred to the German invasion of Russia and added: "The Germans nowhere set up justice, but everywhere impose their power and exploit everything for their own use and aggrandizement, and the peoples of conquered provinces are invited to be free under their dominion. Are we not justified in believing that they would do the same things at their western front if they were not there face to face with enemies whom their countless divisions can no overcome?"

WAR STAMPS ARE MOVING RAPIDLY

The sale of War Savings stamps and Thrift stamps in Fayette county continues without interruption, and at the present time the total sales are believed to be well along toward $200,000, or nearly $9 per capita, which is probably equal to the per capita sales in any county in Ohio, and in excess of most of them at the present time.

There is every indication that, with each person doing their part in the purchase of stamps, Fayette county will subscribe her quota by the end of the year.

The stamps are on sale continuously at any bank or postoffice, and may be purchased in any amount from 25c up to $1,000.
